

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, our state's senior citizens are a vital resource for all South Carolinians, as seniors lend their invaluable skills and experience to their communities and families to help ensure our continued quality of life; and

WHEREAS, our state's seniors have witnessed history as it unfolds, and their unique perspective and experiences are of untold value; and

WHEREAS, in recalling the many profound changes that have occurred in the lives of man, we can greatly benefit from the shared knowledge of our seniors who are truly legends in their own time; and

WHEREAS, during Church and Community Living Legend Day, residents of Greenville will come together to recognize senior South Carolinians for their many contributions to our quality of life.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 2, 2003, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to honor our seniors and to recognize their contributions to our way of life.
